

PARKLAND FUEL CORPORATION ANNOUNCES CFO RESIGNATION

Red Deer, Alberta, April 15, 2011 – (“Parkland” or the “Corporation”) (TSX: PKI), Canada’s largest independent fuel distributor and marketer, today announced the resignation of Senior Vice President and CFO Ken Grondin effective July 1, 2011.

Bob Espey, President and COO of Parkland said “Ken was instrumental in the achievement of several key strategic initiatives that have built a strong platform for future growth and profitability. Notably Ken assumed a lead role in the conversion of Parkland from an Income Trust to a Corporate structure, led two convertible debenture financings for a total of $143 million in proceeds at industry leading terms and was a full partner in several acquisitions including Bluewave Energy, the largest in the Corporation’s history.”

“On behalf of management and the board I want to thank Ken for his many contributions and wish him well with his future plans.”

The corporation has actively begun the process to recruit a new CFO.
