RED DEER, ALBERTA--(Marketwired - July 8, 2014) -

NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION TO THE U.S. NEWSWIRE SERVICES OR FOR DISSEMINATION IN THE UNITED STATES

Parkland Fuel Corporation ("Parkland") (TSX:PKI) today announced the resignation of Mr. Michael Lambert, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, who is leaving Parkland effective August 8, 2014, to pursue an opportunity in another industry.

"On behalf of the management team and the Board of Directors, I would like to thank Mike for his contributions to Parkland. With his help, Parkland has grown significantly during his tenure, and we see tremendous growth continuing for the corporation as we move forward. We wish Mike all the best in this next stage in his career," said Bob Espey, President and CEO.

Parkland is well-positioned to continue to execute on its growth strategy. "I have great confidence in our Finance team's ability to continue to oversee and steward our strong financial position," added Mr. Espey.

Commenting on his time with the Corporation, Mr. Lambert noted, "I've really enjoyed working with so many talented people. I wish my colleagues here all the best as Parkland continues to succeed on its growth strategy."

The Corporation has actively begun the process to recruit a new CFO.
